Inspiration for the Discerning Traveller

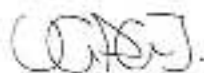

A WORLD OF QUALITY

These pages of elegant escapes reflect a world of quality in every sense of the word. Destination, style, theme, duration - these are many in their variety and contrasts. From cruising amid the splendour of the Galapagos Islands over exploring the African bush on a walking safari to relaxing on a delightful white powder sand beach.

Throughout the publication, however, every effort is made to single out only those escapes that are the finest in their region with location, reputation and aesthetics playing the largest part in the careful selection process.

Whatever the selected theme or style of a planned escape, our objective is always to provide discerning travellers with useful, reliable and current inspiration for their upcoming journeys around the world.
