THE CHATEAU SPA & ORGANIC WELLNESS RESORT

Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia

The Chateau is conceptualized to differentiate itself from other destination spas throughout the world. The award-winning luxury retreat is the world's first organic spa and wellness resort. It offers a complete organic experience with personalized holistic spa and wellness programs for guests seeking the ultimate in health and well-being enrichment.

Modelled after the 12th-century Château du Haut-Koenigsbourg castle in Alsace, France, The Chateau Spa & Organic Wellness Resort stands proud at 3,000 feet above sea level, sprawled over 16,000 acres of lush greenery as it reigns over the village of Colmar Tropicale, a French-themed village resort. The Chateau also overlooks the scenic green lawns and slopes of an 18-hole championship golf course of the Berjaya Hills Golf & Country Club and other attractions such as the Japanese Village, Adventure Park, Equestrian Park and many more.

The jewel of the Chateau's crown is La Sante Organic Wellness Spa, the first European concept spa in Asia. A sanctuary of healing and wellness, La Sante combines the best of European spa expertise with warm Asian hospitality. The Spa has a team of specialists and well trained spa personnel who deliver tailor-made, individualized treatments and spa programs ranging from stress relief, weight loss, body cleansing, lifestyle therapy, beauty and body pampering, pre- and post-natal to "for the men" programs and golf and spa retreat programs.

Dining experiences include the award-winning L'Assiette restaurant that prides itself on fine French cuisine, La Vie — modern and chic all day dining offering international cuisine, Belle Vue Tea Room — stylish and romantic serving exquisite afternoon tea, LeRouge and the Salon Cigar Lounge for sheer unwinding.

ORGANIC WELLNESS RESORT
Berjaya Hills, Pahang, Malaysia

Enter through the doors of L'Assiette and you will enter into a world of culinary extravaganza. A black marble chess floor and wooden wine cellar welcome guests into a journey of pure gastronomic indulgence. From the most refined bubbly champagnes to an organic selection of red and white wines, diners can pass through the best of Bordeaux all the way to Alsace, of which the restaurant's sommelier can pair with any meal for dining perfection.

Dining from one of the delicately designed Tasting Menu, everything at L'Assiette has a royal treat to it. Organic French linen dresses each table elegantly and a palace-like silver candlelight adds glow to the dinner. In addition, gold and black chandeliers witness the delicate choreography orchestrated by the restaurant team, who provides the most warm and personalized service.

Guests can also dine on the outdoor terrace and listen to the sounds of a 150-year-old Malaysian rainforest while sampling exquisite caviar or the warm and soft brioche that accompanies the homemade

French Foie Gras Terrine. Life could not be more complete! Another extraordinary element of L'Assiette's fine dining is its embrace of a wide selection of organic and non-organic products from around the world, all carefully crafted together by the restaurant's culinary team.

Lead by a Michelin-Standard French Chef, the cuisine at The Chateau is classic, yet sophisticated, and plays a colorful role in every "assiette," French for plate. The Chef personally chooses each of the ingredients from the nearly 50,000-square-foot organic farm lying around lush tropical landscape not far from the hotel. Guests are able to choose and pick from a range of more than 100 delicately and carefully home grown organic fruits and vegetables.
